

III ANTI-IMPERIALIST POSTER EXHIBITION: IMPERIALISM

INTERNATIONAL WEEK OF
ANTI-IMPERIALIST
STRUGGLE

tricontinental

'Our enemy is imperialism, not abstract art,' said Cuban leader Fidel Castro.

Imperialism* is the third in a series of four Anti-Imperialist Poster Exhibitions, launched in the context of the week of anti-imperialist action planned 5-10 October 2020. It gathers work from 63 artists and militants from 26 countries who paint an international portrait of anti-imperialist struggles today.

The struggles against neo-fascism and military aggressions and for national sovereignty and the protection of the peoples and the land. As we come together across the world to stand up to all manifestations of imperialism let us be inspired by these bold posters which depict the face of our enemy and the will of the people to resist.

These posters are meant to be shared on social media, printed and pasted on the streets, and used in workshops and discussions. In other words they are both tools and trenches for our anti-imperialist struggle.

You can download them all here.

Imperialism

Few countries have built enormous militaries and control international systems of trade and finance in order to plunder natural resources, exploit workers, and increase and consolidate profits and power.

These countries, controlled by their corporations, bully the rest of the world to do their bidding.

na área financeira, ao mesmo tempo em que colocam todo o ônus da crise nas costas dos trabalhadores, com ataques ainda mais violentos aos direitos sociais e recrudescimento da repressão sobre os movimentos populares.

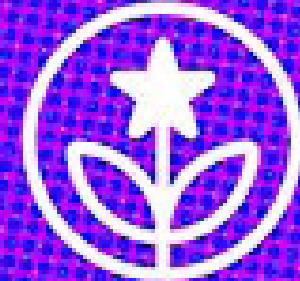

ocorre com periodicidade regular desde os primórdios das crises monetárias. Resultam das contradições gerais do sistema que se acumulam ao longo do processo de desenvolvimento das forças produtivas e de concorrência entre as empresas. Além disso, têm como cerne o movimento centralizador do capital em todas as suas instâncias. No momento em que explodem as crises, procurando atender seus interesses em recuperar taxas de lucro aceitáveis para manter, assim, o capital operando, a classe burguesa em suas diferentes frações (nem sempre, portanto, de maneira homogênea) toma uma série de medidas e intensifica outras já correntes no modo de produção capitalista: há queima de meios de produção, redução da produção e do consumo, redução de mercados, destruição do poder de compra da moeda, rebaixamento de salários e demissões em massa visando ao aumento do exército de reserva, e inclusive destruição de força de trabalho (como no caso das guerras, por exemplo, utilizadas recorrentemente como estratégia de esterilização da economia).
